

My husband and I both work, so I do not depend solely on my U salary and benefits. Without his income, though, we would be in serious trouble! My salary would not support a family of three.